Liana Venditti

Special Counsel
Real Estate & Commercial

I bring a thoughtful, hands-on approach to my work, partnering closely with clients to guide them through property transactions with clarity and confidence.

A strategic and commercially minded property lawyer who partners with clients to deliver efficient, high-value transaction outcomes.

Introduction

Liana is a senior property lawyer with over a decade of experience advising on complex real estate transactions, development projects and property-related corporate matters across Australia. She works closely with developers, investors, corporates and institutional clients, providing pragmatic and commercially focused advice and guiding matters efficiently from inception through to completion.

Liana advises across the full lifecycle of property transactions, including acquisitions and disposals, large-scale residential, mixed-use and commercial developments, and property portfolios connected with corporate and M&A activity. She is recognised for her ability to manage technically complex matters, coordinate multiple stakeholders and deliver outcomes aligned with her clients' commercial objectives. Liana regularly leads transactions involving development sites, staged projects and national portfolios and plays an active role mentoring junior lawyers.
